
For Associate Member

Michael Miano

Senior Consultant

Marvin E. Poer & Company

Boston, Massachusetts

Mike has been a Senior Consultant with Marvin E. Poer & Company's Boston office since 2003. He's been a continuous member of IAAO since 1977. He was employed by the City of Hartford, CT, Department of Assessment beginning in 1975 and joined IAAO as a regular member. In 1986, Mike joined the Hartford office of Tenenbaum & Associates. He also served as Chairman of the Town of Hebron, CT, Board of Tax Review from 1987 to 1993. Mike became a Licensed General Appraiser when licensing was instituted in 1989. In 1992, he joined Tenebaum's Boston office and subsequently relocated to the Boston area in 1993 and became an Associate Member. In 1995, Mike joined Ernst & Young LLP's State and Local Tax Practice as a Tax Senior Manager and then from 2000–2003 worked in the same capacity in KPMG LLP's Boston State and Local Tax Practice.

In 2003, Mike was appointed to the Associate Member Committee and is currently serving on that committee. In 2004, he received a Presidential Citation and was the recipient of the 2008 Harry Galkin Award presented at last year's conference in Reno.

Mike and his wife Pam have been married for 35 years. They reside in the Town of Duxbury, MA. They have two grown children and one grandchild.