

Friends of the IAAO Paul V. Corusy Library Trust Guidelines

The Friends of the Paul V. Corusy Library Trust was created in recognition of the needs of all members searching for information in the mass appraisal, tax assessment and tax policy throughout the world.

The purpose of the Friends of the Paul V. Corusy Library Trust is to:

Assist members by providing funds to do research in the field of mass appraisal, tax assessment and tax policy throughout the world.

Assist the library with the purchase of written and electronic material to be used in the library.

Support the functions of the library it is presently performing and identify ways to disseminate information to IAAO members.

Support the library with additional purchases of equipment as necessary to enhance the operations to serve the members of IAAO.

Authority to dispense grants or expenditures shall be the responsibility of the Trust Committee. With the approval of the Trust Committee, the IAAO Executive Director or its designee has the authority to write checks on the fund. No part of the Trust shall inure to the private benefit of the administrators of the committee.

The proceeds of the Trust will be distributed to deserving research papers, educational material, reference material or equipment that are important to all IAAO members, councils or articles in IAAO publications. Applications must be submitted in writing on the prescribed form. All applicants must be a member of IAAO in good standing. The number of purchases or grants awarded each year will be subject to the availability of funds or other constraints.
