Assessment research on the go?

Download these FREE mobile apps from iTunes or Google Play app store:

- Access My Library Special Edition- Access to the IAAO Journal & The Appraisal Journal articles. Select "Corporate" and enter the password: iaao.
- BlueFire Reader- Set up an Adobe ID (usually an email address) to check out eBooks. Obtain the free ID at Adobe.com. Also download the BlueFire Reader to your portable device and authorize it with your Adobe ID.
- Genius Scan- Genius Scan is a scanner in your pocket. Quickly scan your documents on the go and export them as JPEG or multi-page PDF files.
- WorldCat- Find books at your local library at WorldCat.org/mobile
- Evernote- Collect your research notes, images, documents, web clips, and audio in one place and sync it across all your computer, phone, and tablet.
- Dropbox- Cloud computing that stores your documents, videos, & photos so that you can access them from anywhere.
- ES File Explorer- Full featured file and application manager that is compatible with cloud computing services such as Dropbox and Google Drive.
- Google Drive- Cloud-based service that includes Google Docs for collaborating with others in real time on documents, spreadsheets, and presentation.
- Dashlane- Manages passwords across all Internet sites and connected devices. Securely encrypted.
- Units- Units is a simple unit conversion utility for the iPhone. Units lets you punch in digits and it does the conversion on the fly.
- ConvertPad- ConvertPad is the most powerful and fully featured unit converter and currency converter. For Android platform.
- LinkedIn- A business-oriented social network for career development. Join the IAAO LinkedIn group by creating a profile and requesting to join the group.
