IAAO Member Consultant Form

The Technical Assistance Committee wants to harness your talent and is seeking individuals to serve the organization on committees and for special projects including technical assistance.

The goal of this project is to create a list of those willing to share their skills, talents and abilities as a Technical Assistance Consultant or Project Leader. The first step toward meeting this goal is to create a list of willing participants, and begin to catalogue their areas(s) of expertise.

Please complete the form below. Don't forget to include those areas of knowledge specific to assessment, and often not included in your resume (for example, a specific CAMA system). Please include an electronic signature, date the form, and upload a copy of your resume. You may contact IAAO, at TechAssist@iaao.org with any questions.
