

IAAO

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION of ASSESSING OFFICERS

Valuing the World

World Bank Field Trip: A visit to a local U.S. government office - Stafford County Commissioner of Revenue's office

March 29, 2019

Ways to Register:

If you are unable to prepay via online registration by credit card or electronic check you may complete this form and pay the registration fee in cash on site. If you are able to register and pay online please visit www.iaao.org/wbc19.

Please email completed form to Christopher Barlow at barlow@iaao.org

_____		_____
First Name		Last Name
_____		_____
Title		Employer
_____		_____
Employer's Street Address	City	State	Zip/Postal Code	Country
_____		_____
Phone	Fax	E-mail
_____		_____
Emergency Contact Name		Phone

Registration Fee includes: Transportation from the World Bank, a visit to the County office with lunch, and a tour of America's first president George Washington's boyhood home in Stafford County

Registration Fee.....$29 USD (Cash Only)

Participants will meet at 8:45 am (Eastern) at the World Bank Building Main Entrance at H Street and Penn Avenue for a 9:00 am departure by bus and will return at 4:00 pm. From this field trip from the World Bank Conference, you will gain a first-person perspective of how Stafford County, Virginia, a local U.S. county, administers land, values properties, and ensures fair and equitable taxation. Join us for a short trip south of Washington, D.C. to the peri-urban community of Stafford, for a briefing co-hosted by Scott Mayausky, Commissioner of Revenue for Stafford County, and also from the International Association of Assessing Officers (IAAO).

If you have any questions please contact Christopher Barlow at 816-701-8127 or by email at barlow@iaao.org