171 Completed
Yes

Results

You have completed 51.00 hours. You have a minimum of 19.00 hours left to complete, including to any outstanding courses indicated above. (e.g. "171 Completed: No" indicates you need 171)

Results reflect the information you provided from this submission only. It does not include any hours you might have previously submitted. Please refer to any past confirmations you have received to determine your actual total.

4) Review Summary & Complete

By pressing Submit to IAAO, you affirm that all information provided is true and accurate. Your actions and your submission is bound by the IAAO Code of Ethics. Any information found to be false will be disqualified and the matter will be referred to the IAAO for disciplinary and potential enforcement action. An insufficient number of hours by the end of the reporting period may result in the loss of your professional designation.

You will receive a confirmation email and will also have the ability to download a PDF of it for your records.

Please do not submit if you click "Submit to IAAO." You will be able to submit at a later date and will not submit to IAAO. This form will only submit if you click "Submit to IAAO."

Logging and Submitting Your Hours

- Enter your hours as you earn them, both IAAO events and from other providers
- Use the “Submit to IAAO” button to save your entries and submit for review
- Once you submit, you will receive an email copy for your records
- IMPORTANT: the email will include a link for you to return to your form to add more hours later
- An IAAO staff member will review your log and confirm with you
- Beginning March 1, 2020, only the new online log form will be accepted for reporting hours

FAQ's

- Q: What are the recertification requirements?
  - A: Please visit recertification to view the requirements.
- Q: How can I find out my recertification cycle?
  - A: Please email recertification@iaao.org to inquire about your cycle dates.
- Q: How can I see what hours I have earned through IAAO?
  - A: Log in to your account on www.iaao.org, select My Account from the top of the page, then View My IAAO Transcript. Note that many of our live webinars provide hours but do not yet appear on the transcript. You can select View My Proceedings/Webinars under My Account for these and also past webinars purchased in our store.
- Q: Where can I find my IAAO membership number?
  - A: Log in to your account on www.iaao.org, select My Account from the top of the page, then Update My Profile. You can view your member number, then cancel without making any changes.
- Q: Why do I have to log my hours earned with IAAO?
  - A: Currently there is no one source for IAAO staff to access credit hours you have earned. Logging your IAAO hours ensures all hours you are entitled to are submitted for review and prevents any delay in recertifying your designation. It also greatly improves the form's results section under the summary so you preliminarily know where you stand against the requirements.
- Q: When is my log form due?
  - A: You have up to two months after your cycle ends to submit your log form.
- Q: What if I need more time to earn or report hours?
  - A: A one year extension is available upon approval of the Professional Development Committee. You can download the required request form here: recertification.
- Q: How can I tell if an event I entered is acceptable before my cycle ends?
  - A: Once you save your log form, an IAAO staff member will review it and confirm the entries with you.
- Q: How should I enter hours earned at a conference?
  - A: Enter the conference as one event with the total hours earned at the event. Conference providers supply proof of completion noting the total hours that qualify, excluding business meetings, social events, and the like.
